

Kenneth James Swett, 78, of St. Paul, Nebraska, formerly of Burwell, Nebraska died December 14, 2015 at the Brookfield Park Skilled Nursing & Rehabilitation Center in St. Paul, Nebraska.

Funeral services will be at 10:30 a.m. Thursday, December 17, 2015 at the United Methodist Church in Burwell, Nebraska. Pastor Dennis Davenport will officiate. Visitation will be from 5 – 7 p.m. Wednesday at Hitchcock Funeral Home in Burwell. Memorials are suggested to the family.

Ken was born June 1, 1937 in Burwell, Nebraska to Lynn and Ruby (Hartford) Swett.

Ken married Beulah Welton on January 5, 1962 in Chamberlain, South Dakota. They made their home on the Swett ranch north of Burwell until 1999. They then lived in Ord, St. Libory, Wahoo and St. Paul. Beulah died on January 22, 2012.

Ken enjoyed piddling in the shop, hunting, fishing and participating in and watching rodeo.

Ken is survived by two children, Earl Swett of St. Libory, Nebraska and Connie and Bob Gottbreht of Dunseith, North Dakota. Five grandchildren, Brady and Brandi Swett, Tara and Brian Malmstrom, Kristina Gottbreht, Brandon Gottbreht and Ashley Gottbreht. Two great-grandsons, Keaton Malmstrom and Brock Swett. A brother Virgil and Lois Swett of Ericson, Nebraska.

Ken was preceded in death by his parents and his wife.